BUCKLEY, K. A. H., jt. ed. Historical statistics of Canada. See Urquhart, M. C.

BUCKLEY, WILLIAM F. The unmaking of a mayor [by] William F. Buckley, Jr. 341p il $6.95 Viking

329 New York (City)—Politics and government 66-20339

"Mr. Buckley offered himself as a candidate of the Conservative Party for mayor of New York in the 1965 campaign . . . with little hope of winning the mayoralty. . . . He describes his tribulations as a candidate, expounds his own measures to relieve city problems, criticizes those of his opponents, details anecdotes of political maneuvering and . . . accepts defeat." (Library J) Bibliographical references. Index.

Reviewed by J. K. Galbraith
Book Week p5 O 16 '66 1350w

Reviewed by Paul Goodman
Commonweal 85:351 D 23 '66 1650w

"[Mr. Buckley's] style is witty and ironic, usually at the expense of his opponents, but he can also enjoy a joke on himself. He has not attempted to analyze the effects of his campaign on the Republican Party, of which he is a member. [However he] has striven to explain the position of a conservative as he sees it. The account is well documented. This is an important book for students of politics and history because it presents the views of a large segment of the population, and because it describes political campaigning in the largest city in the country. Recommended for all political and history collections, all college libraries, all large public libraries and all public libraries in New York City." T. E. Smith
Library J 91:4673 O 1 '66 260w

Reviewed by C. B. Luce
Nat R 18:1171 N 15 '66 3000w

"Mr. Buckley insists that 'The Unmaking of a Mayor' is not a non-book, and it is true that there are occasional flashes of original and highly readable prose. But about half of the 341 pages are devoted to the reprinting of campaign documents—editorials, letters, position papers—apparently in an effort to produce a faithful 'record' of the campaign. the rest is overwritten and frequently tedious, as in the long argument attempting to prove that Goldwater is more in the Lincoln tradition than Lindsay. The most interesting sections deal with the manhandling of Buckley by the press. . . . His prose was, in fact, repeatedly distorted." John Leo
N Y Times Bk R p34 O 30 '66 1000w

"[This book] is a polemical, witty, right-wing assessment of New York's chaotic problems. It is also Buckley's most furious barrage against the Republican Party." S. K. Oberbeck
Newsweek 68:110 O 17 '66 750w
Time 88:112 N 4 '66 340w

BUCKMASTER, HENRIETTA. The Seminole wars. 153p il $2.95; lib bdg $3.24 Collier bks.

973.5 Seminole Indians—Juvenile literature. Indians of North America—Wars—Juvenile literature 64-23645

"This book offers . . . [an] account of the Seminole Indians' . . . defense of their homeland against the overwhelming force of a young nation intent on expanding its borders." (Publisher's note) Bibliography. "Grades seven to nine." (Library J)

"Action, suspense, and detail accompanied by lively and sensitive whole-page illustrations of the Indians. . . . This offers exciting reading for 12-year-old and up." Sr. M. Judith Best Sell 25:421 F 1 '66 130w

"[This] is an honest, unglossed account of the way the Seminoles were treated. . . . Miss Buckmaster, with compassion and authority, follows the course of the conflict, which dragged on through the Florida swamps for more than thirty years." M. W. Stoer
Christian Science Monitor p6B My 5 '66 220w

"While the opening chapters are exciting and the whole is well-written the difficulties of the names and the involved recounting of incidents make this a book for better readers Useful in social studies and history." E. M. Portteus
Library J 90:5088 N 15 '65 80w

BUCKMASTER, HENRIETTA. Women who shaped history. 152p pl $2.95; lib bdg $3.24 Collier bks.

920 Woman—Biography—Juvenile literature. Women in the U.S.—Juvenile literature 66-23073

" 'This book is about six women who lived in the United States in the nineteenth century—a period of such profound change that a whole new social order was reflected in it.' The author relates . . . the lives of Dorothea Dix, Prudence Crandall, Elizabeth Cadby Stanton, Elizabeth Blackwell, Harriet Tubman and Mary Baker Eddy. . . . Grades eight to twelve." (Library J)

"This is a book to give heart to today's teen-agers who are ready to take action on behalf of humanity—and perhaps to cause a twinge of conscience in those too apathetic or self-centered to care. . . . Through her simple, sensitive, and obviously sympathetic accounts, [Miss Buckmaster] emphasizes how these women touched in various ways the great 19th-century movements toward human justice that are continuing today." R. N.
Christian Science Monitor p6B My 5 '66 80w [YA]

"There is much excellent material already available on the lives of these important women. Additional purchase if brief biographical information is needed." E. P. Hawley
Library J 91:3552 Jl '66 40w [YA]

BUECHNER, FREDERICK. The magnificent defeat. 144p $3.50 Seabury

252.05 Sermons. Presbyterian Church 66-12638

A "collection of meditations upon various aspects of the religiously meaningful life, grouped about the ideas of surrender, love, and grace." (Library J)

Choice 3:220 My '66 140w

"[The author] perpetuates the substantially sober evangelical sermon. . . . [The book] is not a magnificent defeat . . . but an ordinary triumph, very good of its kind. . . . [These sermons] grant relative value to the world, distinguish Christianity and morality, argue the propriety of poetry for discourse about mystery (creation and incarnation, but not resurrection, which is a fact). . . . A eucharistic sermon . . . surpasses all others that I know in expressing the future-oriented aspect of sacramental participation. . . . Faults that do not flaw an isolated sermon . . . are too noticeable in the collection, though it is otherwise outstanding." Tony Stoneburner
Christian Century 83:177 F 9 '66 450w

"By focussing now upon the stark truth of the Biblical message, now upon some hitherto unseen meaning, and now upon a traditional significance, [the author] has effectively performed the function of the preacher—to pierce the soul of contemporary man with the sword of religious relevance. For the general adult reader and young adult collections." S. W. Wojtowicz
Library J 91:258 Ja 15 '66 90w [YA]

"The author combines high writing skill with a profound understanding of Christian essentials." N. K. Burger
N Y Times Bk R p16 F 20 '66 230w

BUEHR, WALTER. The magic of paper; written and il. by Walter Buehr. 95p $3.25 Morrow

676 Paper making and trade—Juvenile literature 66-10562

"Beginning with a chapter on the need for paper throughout the world, the book continues with chapters about the history of paper-making today, kinds of papers in use today, and concludes with a chapter on paper in the future. [Index.] Grades four to six." (Library J)

Reviewed by R. C. Bergenheim
Christian Science Monitor p7B My 5 '66 70w

"Paper-making from earliest inventions to present-day advances has gone through almost magical transformation. The drawings add to explanations of technical processes and enliven the book. Names and dates pinpoint world-wide achievements. For the middle group of school children." V. H.
Horn Bk 42:322 Je '66 40w

acing nuclear future' must come through a mature understanding among nations." Jane Volles
+ — San Francisco Chronicle p24 My 24 '59 500w

"Mrs. Buck is earnest and intelligent and her science is accurate. The crucial episodes showing the explosion of the first bomb are charged with excitement. But, through no fault of hers, the science fails to support the human story. . . For all the author's intellectual discipline and technical accuracy, one cannot say that this novel reaches its goals, or that it satisfies the appetite for greater insight into the matter." Eleazar Lipsky
— + Sat R 42:31 My 16 '59 600w

"Miss Buck has tackled her subject heroically, unabashed by the necessity to explain the consistency of plutonium and other unromantic details. All the same, one suspects that she, as well as her readers, feels on more congenial ground in the 'human' scenes where personality and emotion war with the hard facts of science, and the result is inescapably a little frivolous."
+ — Times [London] Lit Sup p517 S 11 '59 250w

"This novel will be in great demand because a popular author attempts to bring a subject of great magnitude to our level of understanding, as it unfolds the domestic dramas created by the decisions to be made and followed."
+ Wis Lib Bul 55:374 Jl '59

BUCK, PEARL (SYDENSTRICKER) (MRS RICHARD JOHN WALSH), and ROMULO, CARLOS PENA. Friend to friend: a candid exchange between [the authors]. 126p $2.50 Day

327.73 U.S.—Relations (general) with foreign countries 58-13708

For descriptive note see Annual for 1958.

"Understanding between the American people and the peoples of Asia is fostered in an excellent way by the honesty with which both these writers have presented their thoughts to each other and to the world." P. K. T. Sih
+ Cath World 188:515 Mr '59 350w
Foreign Affairs 37:506 Ap '59 20w

"Frank in stating the seriousness of the problem, this could be an excellent basis for discussion, as well as useful for classes in modern problems."
+ Library J 84:1021 Mr 15 '59 50w

BUCKLEY, HELEN ELIZABETH. Grandfather and I; pictures by Paul Galdone. [25p] $2.75 Lothrop

58-10716

"Tells about the leisurely, contemplative walk of one small boy and his grandfather, during which they observe everything from snails to horses, while the rest of the family dash madly from one chore to another." (San Francisco Chronicle) For ages three to five.

+ Booklist 55:401 Mr 15 '59
Reviewed by J. J. Baron
+ Chicago Sunday Tribune p2 My 10 '59 110w
Reviewed by Rod Nordell
+ Christian Science Monitor p10 My 14 '59 80w

"Parents will be reminded of a small child's urgent need for time and peacefulness in today's rushed world. And today's grandfather will be pleased to find himself, in these pictures, without the big white beard and general tottery appearance which have usually been assigned to him in children's books." M. W. B.
+ Horn Bk 35:203 Je '59 80w
Kirkus 27:133 F 15 '59 80w
Reviewed by Marian Herr
+ Library J 84:1329 Ap 15 '59 70w

"The illustrations are colorful and simple. They show the excitement of the boy in his many discoveries and the satisfaction of the grandfather in the boy's pleasure." Lois Palmer
+ N Y Times p32 Mr 29 '59 150w
Reviewed by Charlotte Jackson
San Francisco Chronicle p29 Je 7 '59 60w

"An exceptionally good choice for the preschool story hour with its repetitive text and bold, uncluttered pictures."
+ Wis Lib Bul 55:263 My '59

BUCKLEY, WILLIAM FRANK. Up from liberalism; foreword by John Dos Passos. 206p $3.50 McDowell, Obolensky

342.73 Liberalism. U.S.—Politics and government—20th century 59-13759

A diagnosis of contemporary American liberalism by the editor of the National Review, who attacks the philosophy of the liberals while defending enlightened conservatism. Index.

"A militant, controversial work."
Booklist 56:108 O 15 '59

"Mr. Buckley is a controversialist by nature and often a dazzlingly brilliant one. . . . His weapons are an urbane wit, literary hauteur, a sharp eye for contradiction and a sense of logic. The last named often uses, unfortunately, some strange premises, so Mr. Buckley ends up in as many blind alleys as his foe. Up from Liberalism, as the title indicates, is another salvo in the battle and displays Mr. Buckley at his best and worst. . . . Mr. Buckley's conservative economic stands place him in clear contradiction to Catholic moral teaching on social doctrine. He is as wrong here as he is right in condemning the facade of academic freedom. . . Mr. Buckley is a provocative, stimulating writer. But perhaps the best summary of him came from the enemy camp. Dwight MacDonald, writing of his days as editor of the Daily News at Yale, said: 'Almost nobody agreed with him but everybody read him.'" Kevin Lynch
Cath World 190:132 N '59 700w

"A born debater and literary knight errant, Buckley does not grow angry or shrill—only ironic and, here and there, mournful. He is concerned with controversies of the last few decades, rather than with the intellectual and political roots of American liberalism. He has a detailed, almost overwhelming accuracy of knowledge about the facts in question. Despite the rage with which liberals received his first book, 'God and Man at Yale' [Book Review Digest 1951], . . . Buckley himself retained traces of the liberalism which he assailed; this led, in my opinion, to some inconsistencies or paradoxes in his treatment of such subjects as academic freedom. His latest book is the work of a mind more mature and Buckley now seems an 'integral conservative.'" Russell Kirk
+ Chicago Sunday Tribune p9 N 8 '59 450w

"Following Mr. Buckley along the path upward from liberalism is a confusing, breathless experience. The way is strewn with snakes, and Mr. Buckley attempts at least a glancing blow at each of them. But a follower never has a chance to get a good look at the snakes; the pace is too rapid and the route too winding." Richard Philbrick
Christian Century 77:81 Ja 20 '60 270w

"It is easy to sympathize with the plight of Mr. Buckley and the avant-garde of militant conservatism. They suffer from the afflictions that beset the leaders of a minority which is going against the tide of its time. . . To make things worse the Liberals (accepting Mr. Buckley's accusing capital letter for the moment) are much better writers of books. It would have helped to redress the balance if Mr. Buckley could have better articulated the case for his group of stern conservatives." S. R. Davis
Christian Science Monitor p13 O 7 '59 650w
Kirkus 27:579 Ag 1 '59 300w

"William Buckley, Jr., the enfant terrible of today's self-styled conservatism [is] the defender of nineteenth-century economic orthodoxy. And this position, while perhaps closer to the businessman's mind than, say, the theories of Kirk, suffers the defects that it is neither: (1) in touch with the reality of the contemporary mixed economy, nor (2) conservative in any philosophical sense." M. D. Reagan
Nation 190:211 Mr 5 '60 250w

"Mr. Buckley's proposition in this book appears to be that if he can prove that leading liberals are in the grip of some kind of 'mania,' he will thereby have demolished the liberal philosophy. The examples which he produces add up to no such proof. . . More significant than Mr. Buckley's argument is the light that it throws on the collapse of the movement he represents." James Reichley
New Repub 141:27 O 19 '59 1300w
Reviewed by H. S. Bachr
N Y Herald Tribune Bk R p7 D 20 '59 450w

"The spirited editor of The National Review and the appointed (or at least self-appointed) scourge of American liberalism, William F.

BUCKLEY, W. F.—Continued

Buckley Jr., herewith rides again. As usual, he takes his readers on a lively and tempestuous journey. Only this time he seems to come out at a point that is likely to alarm friends and foes alike." A. M. Schlesinger, Jr.
N Y Times p3 O 4 '59 850w

"'Up from Liberalism' is a readable and sincere work but as a book it has many, many defects. Much of it is devoted to personalities rather than to ideas, with a good deal of rather scurrilous abuse heaped on opponents. . . There is an excess of scholastic logic. . . With all its defects, the book is one more expression of the need deeply felt by a growing number of educated Americans to acquire a clear comprehension of the society they live in and of its ideological foundation." Massimo Salvadori
Sat R 42:42 O 10 '59 1000w

"The book is not an intellectual breakthrough beyond 'liberalism' because Mr. Buckley on one hand defines as 'liberals' all those whose political opinions fall to the left of those held by the late Robert Taft . . . and on the other defines 'liberalism' in terms of such beliefs as the doctrine of inevitable progress which . . . was generally discredited in this country by the end of the First World War. If one disregards its title, however, one must add that Mr. Buckley's book scores some telling points." R. H. L. Wheeler
Yale R n s 49:293 D '59 380w

BUCKMASTER, MAURICE JAMES. They fought alone; the story of British agents in France. 255p $3.95 Norton

940.54 World war, 1939-1945—Secret service. Great Britain. Special operations executive 58-13143

"The British head of Special Operations in France during World War II tells how his organization began in 1941 with a vague assignment to secure information about occupied France, developed into a network of highly trained secret agents carrying out systematic sabotage activities behind German lines, and, joining with the Resistance, played a vital part in the Allied D-Day invasion. He not only describes the selection of recruits, their training, and methods of operation but also relates many of their individual exploits." Booklist

"An episodic but nonetheless gripping account which pays tribute to the heroism of British agents and French patriots alike."
+ Booklist 55:391 Mr 15 '59

"Well above average in a crowded field."
+ Kirkus 26:868 N 15 '58 210w

"Books about espionage and sabotage are threatening to become a drug on the market, but this one . . . stands out as one of the most interesting examples of this type of literature." G. A. Craig
+ N Y Herald Tribune Bk R p4 Ja 25 '59 600w

Reviewed by Jack Foisie
+ San Francisco Chronicle p18 F 8 '59 210w

"This gripping account is both authoritative and easy to read." D. B. B.
+ Springf'd Republican p4D My 24 '59 180w

"Colonel Buckmaster has performed the unusual feat of writing a book which earns praise from two quite separate angles. Judged as a literary work, it is a good book, skillfully telling the dramatic story of British agents being dropped into France during the German occupation, aiding and inspiring the growth of French resistance and so preparing the way for the enemy's eventual discomfiture. It is, moreover, a valuable book in that it brings into proper perspective a great many other books by or about individual agents."
+ Times [London] Lit Sup p235 My 2 '58 400w

BUDD, MRS LILLIAN. April harvest. 309p $4.50 Duell

59-5558

The final novel of a trilogy including April Snow and Land of Strangers [Book Review Digest 1951, 1953]. "Here Sigrid Christianson, born in this country of immigrant [Swedish] parents and orphaned at seventeen, makes her own way to independence and education among helping neighbors whose German, Dutch and Irish traditions intermingle with her own. The time includes the outbreak of World War I, dismaying the older folk from war-ridden lands, and the catastrophe of the capsizing of the excursion steamer Eastland at her dock, which left Sigrid responsible for a small child she was holding when his parents perished. In addition to the Chicago setting, Sigrid's journey to her grandmother's home in Sweden shows the background of principles, work, family solidarity and beauty that was her old-country heritage." (N Y Herald Tribune Bk R)

"Will appeal to undemanding women readers despite its sentimental treatment and familiar theme."
Booklist 55:451 Ap 15 '59

"Tender, richly detailed portrayal."
+ Bookmark 18:149 Mr '59 30w

"'April Harvest,' as a story-picture, is painted in the colors of the Swedish flag—summer sky blue and the sun gold of happiness. Everything in the book carries the mood. There is no villain, no evil, and almost never a cruel or mean thought. The tale will bring neither tears nor blushes to anyone, even to a teen-ager, who like her elders, could be interested in how 17 year old Sigrid managed alone in 'wicked' Chicago. Mrs. Budd, it seems to me, has used prose that is a little too flowery sometimes, especially in her descriptions of nature or of emotions. In straight narrative, however, her writing is simple and straightforward, spontaneously good, like her heroine." Fanny Butcher
+ — Chicago Sunday Tribune p3 Mr 29 '59 380w

"A woman's book written with warmth and emotionalism, this is a sentimental version of a theme familiar to all readers of Willa Cather."
Kirkus 27:20 Ja 1 '59 120w

"If you bought 'April Snow' and 'Land of Strangers,' you'd better buy this one too." F. A. Boyle
+ Library J 84:861 Mr 15 '59 60w

"One need not doubt that the nobility which animates nearly everyone in 'April Harvest' and its several fortunate coincidences had their prototypes in actual persons and incidents in the chronicle of the melting pot; brought together in the story of one girl, however, they make up a picture rather too idyllic to be wholly convincing." David Tilden
+ — N Y Herald Tribune Bk R p8 Mr 22 '59 300w

Wis Lib Bul 55:196 Mr '59

BUDKER, PAUL. Whales and whaling. 182p il $4.50 Macmillan (N Y)

599 Whales. Whaling A59-8768

A member of the International Whaling Commission summarizes the biology of right whales, rorquals, and sperm whales, giving ancestry of important species, nomenclature, feeding habits, migrations, speed of travel, etc. Dr. Budker discusses the growth of whaling since the development of the harpoon gun and the regulatory measures being taken to protect whales from extinction. Translated from the French. Index.

"Specifically special."
Kirkus 26:894 D 1 '58 210w

"The author is not as interested in the history of whaling as a number of recent authors in this field have been but instead concentrates on the zoology of it and the techniques of hunting the great mammal. An interesting section is devoted to the age-old taking of whales in small whaleboats by the Portuguese of the Azores Islands." R. H. D.
San Francisco Chronicle p23 F 1 '59 100w

"The author . . . has illustrated his text with some first-class photographs. The chapter on protection and regulations is perhaps the best in this book."
+ Times [London] Lit Sup p738 D 19 '58 450w

BUEHR, WALTER. Bread, the staff of life: tr. by [the author]. 80p $2.75 Morrow

641 Bread—Juvenile literature 59-5056

"The author of Meat From Ranch To Table [Book Review Digest 1956] recounts the history of bread and breadmaking from prehistoric times to the present. He describes different kinds of bread and its importance as a food in various times and p and present milling a (Booklist) Index.

"Interesting account v
reading. Large print. G
+ Booklist 55:424

Reviewed by B. M. Pa
Chicago Sunday
10w

"There are, it seems,
as there are peoples. Ar ries about bread. Walte fascinate the 8-12's aunts. . . The author'
help to make this a
Pamela Marsh
+ Christian Scienc
70w
+ Kirkus 27:92 F

"Simply but dramatic cellent illustrations.
subject and format are s
but the treatment is fo
fore, not recommended.
stand hard usage, othe factory." Irene Davis
— + Library J 84:133

BUEHR, WALTER. Th
Putnam

940.1 Crusades—Juve

"Walter Buehr's acc
[describes] all the maj
barons and knights setti adventure. It brings to li their battles, their trium
It pictures also the fami
the wild confusion wh crusaders as they swept
. . What were the force crusaders to leave their h
the infidels? How were what weapons and tacti did the Europeans find i it was all over, what complish for the world?
answered here." (Publish

"More attractively pre man's The Crusades [Boo and less realistic in its d
and brutality than West'
Review Digest 1956]. Gra
Booklist 55:424 A

"Well written and illum ing is certainly due."
+ Kirkus 27:9 Ja 1

"This will serve as sup
grades 4-6. Recommendeo
+ Library J 84:1008

"The text is the fulle eleven-to thirteen-year-ol presented but informative
. . by R. R. Sellman.
it reports the movement
and the battles, is fairly children will make of cros
ing in Italy and 'pushin without a map or even a land route by Trieste is h
mary of the causes is con curious impression of the Holy Roman Empire, but tended for detailed study.
N Y Herald Tribu
310w

BUGAEV, BORIS NIKOL
burg, by Andrey Biely
introd. by John Cournos
Reavey. 310p $4.75 Grov

"This Russian novel wri
translated into English fo tures St. Petersburg in the foggy city full of mystery.
[It tells] the story of Ap high-ranking government
Nikolai, an ardent but inef
Ordered by his friends to k is understandably reluctan
Apollon himself who inadv his own death." Booklist

"Political in tone yet h romantically but powerful charged with family and n
like the murder bomb, th
plosion."
+ Booklist 55:506 My

"An absorbing story with appeal for men and women." H. R. Forbes
+ Library J 76:513 Mr 15 '51 80w

Reviewed by Paul Bloomfield
Manchester Guardian p4 O 19 '51 200w

"If 'God's Men' lacks some of the rich and living warmth with which Mrs. Buck has endowed her previous novels, it is because in it she seems more concerned here with ideas than with people—but the ideas are vital." F. H. Bullock
+ — N Y Herald Tribune Bk R p3 Ap 8 '51 1100w

"Miss Buck is on the side of the angels. That is not, unfortunately, the same thing as saying that Miss Buck has written a good novel. The early childhood scenes in Peking have about them a flavor characteristic of her writing at its best; but the American passages are weak and suffer from her artificial insistence on William's love of luxury and Clem's folksy speech." J. J. Espey
— + N Y Times p4 Ap 8 '51 700w
New Yorker 27:118 Ap 7 '51 120w

"Pearl Buck is not chiefly concerned with the form or composition of her novel. What she tries to do is to open the minds of readers of popular fiction to certain ideas of living and thinking. A part of the novel is moving because it is written with passion, the rest is in her customary didactic vein." Jane Voiles
San Francisco Chronicle p18 Ap 15 '51 600w

" 'God's Men' has the detached, impersonal quality of a conventionalized Chinese landscape with figures yet, paradoxically, embodies, as no other novel does, the spiritual hunger that both separates and unites the peoples of the world. The reader may quarrel with Miss Buck's ideas, but he will be moved to answer the questions she asks." A. F. Wolfe
+ Sat R of Lit 34:23 Ap 7 '51 800w

Reviewed by L. S. Munn
Springf'd Republican p26A My 6 '51 500w
Time 67:120 Ap 23 '51 330w
Wis Lib Bul 47:120 My '51

BUCKLEY, HAROLD EUGENE. Crystal growth. 571p il $9 Wiley
548 Crystallography 51-9338

"The growing of crystals in the laboratory (or in industry) is of considerable interest in both chemistry and physics, and in recent years several industrial applications have been found, including the production of synthetic gems and of quartz crystals for piezoelectric uses. This book is a comprehensive presentation of the current theoretical and practical knowledge of the subject. It deals not only with large crystals but with crystal growth in general. . . Literature references accompany each chapter. The book is of interest primarily to scientists concerned with research either in college laboratories or in industry." Library J

"Mr. Buckley is a learned and experienced scholar in this field which gives the reader confidence in the review, which is more than merely a literature survey. It is a good blend of theory and practice given in enough detail to enable the reader to obtain practical aid in many problems." William Parrish
+ Chem & Eng N 29:3662 Ag 27 '51 450w

"For anyone seriously concerned with the crystallization of substances, 'Crystal Growth' offers a wealth of fundamental information. It is an ambitious work covering both theory and practice and is well executed with a satisfactory balance between the two phases." R. L. Clarke
+ Chem Eng 58:331 O '51 230w

Reviewed by R. R. Hawkins
Library J 76:531 Mr 15 '51 110w
N Y New Tech Bks 36:21 Mr '51

BUCKLEY, ISABELLE P. Guide to a child's world. 116p $2 Holt 372.241 Child study 51-2002

"The founder of the Buckley Schools for children of nursery, kindergarten and elementary grades tells with examples how parent and teacher can develop together 'a sane and practical approach to education.' " Bookmark

Bookmark 10:179 My '51 30w

"There is a blend of new and old in this report of the principles on which the Buckley Schools of California operate in the lives and education of little children. Its approach is sane and practical." M. L. Becker
+ N Y Herald Tribune Bk R p8 Je 17 '51 450w

"It is a refreshing book, with lots of common sense for parents who should learn by heart her 'Do's and Don'ts.' " L. S. Bechtel
+ N Y Herald Tribune Bk R p10 Je 24 '51 50w
San Francisco Chronicle p21 Je 10 '51 90w
Springf'd Republican p30A Mr 18 '51 150w

BUCKLEY, JEROME HAMILTON. Victorian temper; a study in literary culture. 282p il $4.50 Harvard univ. press
820.9 English literature—History and criticism 51-12074

"An investigation of the attitudes which conditioned Victorian taste and the impulses and forces which produced what the author demonstrates to have been a multi-faceted literature. The study does not analyze major writers so much as a few key figures—Carlyle, Ruskin, Tennyson, Kingsley, Wilde—and the schools, coteries and movements which were the ground-swell of Victorianism." (Library J) Index.

Booklist 48:46 O 1 '51

Reviewed by Henry Sowerby
Christian Science Monitor p13 S 13 '51 700w

"A remarkable knowledge and appreciation of the period is shown, but the study is so crowded with arguments, quotations and allusions that it is difficult to read and is for the avid littérateur or social historian only. . . For university and large public libraries." R. B. Robertson Library J 76:1326 S 1 '51 100w

"In his charting of the violent fluctuations of the Victorian temperature, Buckley remains as serene and humorous as a good doctor should. His diagnosis of the Victorian temper is one of the wisest and sanest available in the field of cultural evaluation." Carlos Baker
+ N Y Times p4 S 9 '51 500w

"An intelligent work of social and literary history, diverting in places but without any high degree of cogency."
+ New Yorker 27:118 S 22 '51 140w

"An acquaintance with the recent writings of John Betjman, Sir Kenneth Clark, and John Summerson might have mitigated the contempt for Victorian Gothic into which Mr. Buckley is led by his devotion to functionalism. . . Though it is necessary to enter these caveats, it should be reiterated that 'The Victorian Temper' is an ambitious book that does not fail." G. N. Ray
+ — Sat R of Lit 34:38 O 13 '51 700w

"The book should be interesting and valuable to all students of 19th-century literature and social history." H. H.
+ Springf'd Republican p22A S 9 '51 170w

BUCKLEY, WILLIAM FRANK. God and man at Yale; the superstitions of academic freedom; introd. by John Chamberlain. 240p $3.50 Regnery 373 Yale university. Teaching, Freedom of 51-13645

"A recent Yale graduate (1950) examines and criticises religion and economics in the Yale

BUCKLEY, W. F.—Continued
curriculum. In the first instance, he finds the general temper of the university anti-religious. In the second instance, he finds the teaching supporting collectivism. He bases his criticism on his own experience, an examination of the textbooks used in the basic courses, and other sources." Library J

"As a believer in God, a Republican, and a Yale graduate, I find that the book is dishonest in its use of facts, false in its theory, and a discredit to its author and the writer of its introduction." McGeorge Bundy
— Atlantic 188:60 N '51 2900w

Discussion by the author and McGeorge Bundy
Atlantic 188:78 D '51 3550w

"John Chamberlain—a sympathetic observer with a good right to speak—fears the author is waging a losing fight; and Mr. Buckley himself seems to think that this may well be true. But he has set out to do his best for his faith, his fellow Americans and his university; and his best turns out to be so good that if the apathetic rest of us resembled him, the fight would not be lost. So do not merely pay attention to professional educators denouncing Mr. Buckley. Read his book." William Fulton
+ Cath World 174:237 D '51 270w

"The book is important because it represents a fair sample of what has been going on in many campuses thruout the country. It is important because it is the work of an unusually brilliant student who observed the leftist propaganda from inside the ivied walls. The author stripped aside the facade of 'academic freedom,' behind which the radical professors always retreat when criticized, and laid the facts bare as he found them first hand." William Fulton
+ Chicago Sunday Tribune p4 O 28 '51 900w

Christian Science Monitor p10 D 8 '51 190w

Reviewed by David Poling
Churchman 166:11 Ja 1 '52 1000w

Reviewed by C. H. Moehlman
— Crozer Q 29:62 Ja '52 1400w

"Buckley is fond of sweeping generalities, refuting some by citing others; he is also susceptible to personal rather than objective vindictiveness; and while he declares himself to be dedicated to this 'cause', his material as well as his mission may be suspect to many."
Kirkus 19:428 Ag 1 '51 140w

"While this argument is primarily of interest to the Yale community, the book has a clear relation to our present general examination of academic freedom in the American educational system, and as such is recommended for inclusion in collections where such material is needed." R. E. Kingery
Library J 76:1700 O 15 '51 140w

"In actual fact, a good part of Buckley's book is devoted to excoriating the views (and the professors of those views) that he dislikes, but since he is neither a theologian nor an economist, his position is of no great general interest. . . It is astonishing, on the assumption that Buckley is well-meaning, that he has not realized that the methods he proposes for his alma mater are precisely those employed in Italy, Germany and Russia. An elite shall establish the truth by ukase and no basic disagreement shall be tolerated." Robert Hatch
— New Repub 125:19 D 3 '51 550w

"The university today may properly insist that those who claim the privilege of freedom must, in the phrase of the late James Rowland Angell, 'justify the claim not only by a decent respect for the opinions of mankind but by sobriety of utterance on acutely controversial issues.' It is a pity that Mr. Buckley should not have been led to explore this approach, wherein he might have found the answer to many of his fears and doubts—an answer not fatally incongruous with the concept of a free university." August Heckscher
N Y Herald Tribune Bk R p18 N 4 '51 750w

"As gadfly against the smug Comrade Blimpse of the left, this important, symptomatic, and widely hailed book is a necessary counterbalance. However, its outworn Old Guard antithesis to the outworn Marxist thesis is not the liberty security synthesis the future cries for. Some day, being intelligent and earnest, Buckley may give us the hard-won wisdom of synthesis. For that, he will first need to add, to his existing virtues, three new ones: sensitivity, compassion, and an inkling of the tragic paradoxes of la condition humaine." Peter Viereck
N Y Times p39 N 4 '51 800w

"It is a very thorough book, a very thoughtful book, a very sincere book. . . Mechanically Mr. Buckley presents us with a most workmanlike job. . . Buckley, as head of the Yale Daily News, was hailed by many as, among other things, a 'brilliant journalist' and denounced by many as 'the most dangerous undergraduate Yale has seen in years.' That he was most assuredly one or the other or both, was seldom questioned. That his book will receive equally strong treatment is a certainty." J. D. L.
San Francisco Chronicle p28 N 4 '51 420w

Reviewed by Selden Rodman
Sat R of Lit 34:18 D 15 '51 950w

Reviewed by F. D. Ashburn
Sat R of Lit 34:44 D 15 '51 1300w

School & Society 74:366 D 8 '51 20w

BUDD, MRS LILLIAN. April snow. 317p $3
Lippincott
51-3029

A story of a peasant woman's life in Sweden in the later years of the nineteenth century. Sigrid, married early to a fanatic, domineering, selfish man, bears a child every year, works incessantly but faces life courageously and even joyously. Tragedy enters her life with one or two of her children but finally the tale ends happily for Sigrid and those she loved best.

Booklist 47:301; 310 My 1 '51
Bookmark 10:207 Je '51 30w

"'April Snow,' despite its privations, its bitterness, its cruelties of man and nature, is actually an idyll. It is a reliving of a legendary past. As Wordsworth said of poetry, 'It takes its origin from emotion recollected in tranquility.'" Fanny Butcher
+ Chicago Sunday Tribune p3 My 20 '51 500w

Kirkus 19:162 Mr 15 '51 120w

"In a contemporary setting, Sigrid might seem too good to be true, Peter too bad. As master and mistress of this lonely nineteenth-century farm, they are convincing. Mrs Budd sets down the details of the family's life with loving care. In addition to work, it held, thanks largely to Sigrid, much that had grace and joy." Mary Ross
+ N Y Herald Tribune Bk R p10 My 20 '51 500w

"Often the descriptions seem almost reward enough for the reader, who will certainly come away from this book with a deeper understanding of Sweden and its ways. The author can suggest the essence of a place: she has a reporter's eye for events—and she knows how to relate them vividly. It's truly a pity that she lacks the sine qua non of the novelist—an ability to dramatize, to convey the reactions of her characters to the teeming life about them." Lily van Ameringen
+ N Y Times p16 Je 24 '51 240w

"Appearances to the contrary, Mrs. Budd's novel is not simply the sentimental account of a Swedish soap opera heroine. There is compassion in the characters, tenderness in the narrative and a reminiscent touch of Sigrid Undset in the setting." M. L. Mueller
+ San Francisco Chronicle p24 Jl 1 '51 100w

Reviewed by Josephine Lawrence
Sat R of Lit 34:36 Je 23 '51 300w

BUCKLEY, WILLIAM F. The jeweler's eye [by] William F. Buckley, Jr. 378p $6.95 Putnam
917.3 U.S.—Civilization. U.S.—Politics and government 68-15501

A collection of articles written since 1962, presenting the author's views on social conditions, politics and American foreign policy. The material in this book has previously appeared in various periodicals including Esquire, The Saturday Evening Post, Commonweal and the National Review. Index.

Reviewed by G. M. Costello
America 119:165 S 7 '68 700w

Reviewed by Phoebe Adams
Atlantic 222:106 Jl '68 20w

"[Buckley] considers himself specially equipped to see where truth lies hidden, hence his claim of a 'jeweler's eye', with or without a loupe. But he is easy to read, whether one agrees with him at all times, sometimes, or not at all."
Best Sell 28:158 Jl 1 '68 100w

"An air of unreality permeates Buckley's cogitations, as if the complex affairs of men had been reduced to straight lines and plotted on graph paper. . . . Nowhere in these pages, for example, does Buckley take a stand on some recognizable American tradition. . . . [Nor] is there any defense of capitalism in these pages, perhaps because Buckley finds it uncongenial to be for anything, resembling in this regard your average radical journalist. What then is left? The answer, quite simply, is anti-Communism. . . . [Buckley] is far more willing than most men to contemplate nuclear war against Communism, and in what is surely the most remarkable essay in this book, he proceeds to demonstrate that an all-out nuclear war would not be as bad as 'pacifists and collaborators' would have us believe." Walter Karp
Book World p14 Je 30 '68 1600w

"Raspy, graspy short broadsides. . . . A rather heavy dose of Buckley, but even in reminiscence there are few dull moments, and the last two essays, tributes to dead sisters, ought to bring a tear even to thoroughgoing antisentimentalists."
Christian Century 85:874 Jl 3 '68 70w

Reviewed by R. C. Bergenheim
Christian Science Monitor p11 Ag 29 '68 400w

"One may violently agree or violently disagree with what acerbic 'Mr. Conservatism' has to say, but about the perceptive incisiveness of Buckley's mind and the clarity of his writing all must agree. One always knows just where he stands—and more important—why. Although this is a disjointed collection of . . . essays presented over a period of five years . . . each is independent in itself. . . . Topics range over a wide panorama of subjects from 'The End of the Latin Mass,' to 'Bobby for King,' and 'Truman Capote's Ball.' There are particularly enlightening evaluations of Herbert Hoover and Douglas MacArthur. . . . There is something here for everyone and very possibly this book, or certainly parts of it, may be among the most discussed literary releases of the year. It is generally recommended." W. C. Kiessel
Library J 93:2467 Je 15 '68 200w

Reviewed by Hugh Kenner
Nat R 20:753 Jl 30 '68 1900w

Reviewed by Mario Puzo
N Y Times Bk R p5 S 15 '68 1100w

BUCKMASTER, HENRIETTA. The lion in the stone; a novel. 464p $6.95 Harcourt
68-23579

"The year is 1969, at the opening of the 25th Session of the General Assembly. The UN, having resolved the Vietnam War, must now take action on an alarming confrontation between Russia and China over Mongolia. It is a period of tense and weary trial for Devar Morogoda, Ceylonese Secretary-General of the UN, who rejects nuclear-power politics. He explains his mission of negotiation: 'Unless we chisel at the stone, how will we know the kind of lion we have?' He is able to 'sculp out' a fresh policy, relieving the threat of war and bringing China into the UN. During the same weeks, he also has a personal crisis, the discovery of his love for Senta, his brother's estranged Norwegian wife." (Library J)

Reviewed by R. B. Nordberg
Best Sell 28:139 Jl 1 '68 550w

"As with the Matterhorn, [this work] makes demands on anyone who hopes to get to the top. Minimum requirements are political intelligence and an ear for a style that is almost Henry Jamesian in its subtlety. . . . [Miss Buckmaster's] latest book shows a new firmness, a welcome contemporaneity, an almost startling relevance to the issues of the moment. There is extraordinarily beautiful writing in it; witty, perceptive comment on life and art; intimate knowledge of diverse national characters, speeches, and cultures. There is a microscopic eye for psychological detail and a telescopic grasp of historical necessity. In short, it is a work—indeed an act—of sheer intellectual and spiritual audacity." Robert Peel
Christian Science Monitor p11 Je 6 '68 700w

"The characters other than Morogoda are scarcely more than shadowy figures, seen in endless talk and body movement—puffing of lips, stroking of hair, and so on. In spite of some tedium and defects of style, [the] book is an important, ambitious novel and is recommended for academic and public libraries." R. R. Gambee Library J 93:2018 My 15 '68 190w

"As a novel, [the] book lacks the imaginative power required by these terrifying times. But it is not exactly a novel and is far from being a failure. Essentially, [it] is a political tract in fictional form, arguing the case for subordination of national interests to an international authority. . . . Questions of political realism here override questions of fictional realism, and this is fortunate because the political views of the characters are more convincing than their personalities. After encountering a couple of 'by joves' and 'jolly goods' in the first appearance of the British Ambassador, I feared the worst. But the worst did not occur. Though these figures lack human richness, they have what this novel most requires: ideological vitality." Robert Scholes
N Y Times Bk R p34 Jl 14 '68 700w

BUDD, RICHARD W. Content analysis of communications [by] Richard W. Budd, Robert K. Thorp [and] Lewis Donohew. 147p $5.95 Macmillan (N Y)
001.5 Content analysis (Communication) 67-16048

"A study of messages and the conditions under which they are produced, processed, and distributed. The authors [consider] . . . what kinds of people are communicating and what ways the environment of the communicator may have significantly affected the communication. . . . Introductory chapters show how content analysis can be employed in conjunction with other behavioral research techniques and examine communications in relation to their environment. Subsequent chapters discuss various aspects of the method—hypothesis formulation and systematic study; sampling; measurement; categories; direction; and problems of reliability and validity. The last two chapters center on . . . advanced statistical methods and the use of the computer." (Publisher's note) Bibliography. Index.

"Budd, Thorp and Donohew have written that rare tool for analysts, a cookbook with valuable recipes for content analysis. . . . They begin with hypothesis formulation where they reveal their preoccupation with mass media and journalism (they are all in schools of journalism or communications). . . . An especially good section deals with reliability and validity, problems which plague any communications research. . . . It is only in the last chapter of the book, a brief five pages that the authors consider content analysis by computer. . . . [However,] the book is a valuable tool which is much needed for current work . . . [and] should provide a stimulus for research work and further, theoretical offerings." E. B. Pirro
Am Pol Sci R 62:607 Je '68 390w

"A useful feature [of this book] is the frequent reference to existing studies that illustrate techniques. In a survey like this some intensity of treatment must be sacrificed for breadth of coverage. Statistical concepts employed are on a simplified level. A good, concise introduction to content analysis as a research technique, oriented toward journalistic research, although useful in other disciplines."
Choice 4:1401 F '68 120w

BUFFIE, EDWARD G., jt. ed. Nongraded schools in action. See Beggs, D. W.

BUFFINGTON, ROBERT. The equilibrist; a study of John Crowe Ransom's poems, 1916-1963. 160p $5.95 Vanderbilt univ. press
811 Ransom, John Crowe 67-27550

The author attempts "to define the nature of the [American writer and critic's] poems, their characteristic ways and procedures. . . . [He] studies the poems from the first book, Poems about God [BRD 1919], to the latest Selected Poems [BRD 1963. His] particular con-

VIA TELETYPE
JUN 0 1969
ENCIPHERED

Mr. Tolson
Mr. DeLoach
Mr. Mohr
Mr. Bishop
Mr. Casper
Mr. Callahan
Mr. Conrad
Mr. Felt
Mr. Gale
Mr. Rosen
Mr. Sullivan
Mr. Tavel
Mr. Trotter
Tele. Room
Miss Holmes
Miss Gandy

MR. CLEVELAND
ROOM 1246

b6
b7C

WA ----7----

FBI NEW YORK

6:30 PM URGENT 6-9-69 AWS

TO DIRECTOR (PLAIN)

FROM NEW YORK 161-3080 8P

WILLIAM FRANK BUCKLEY, JUNIOR, SPECIAL INQUIRY. BUDED SIX NINE INSTANT, WITHOUT FAIL.

RE NEW YORK REPORT OF SA [redacted] DATED SIX SIX LAST.

ON SIX SIX LAST, [redacted] WALLACE-MURRAY CORPORATION, TWO NINE NINE PARK AVENUE, NYC, ADVISED SA [redacted] THAT HE HAD KNOWN APPOINTEE APPROXIMATELY [redacted] THEIR DEGREE OF ASSOCIATION HAD INCREASED STEADILY SINCE HE, [redacted] WAS [redacted] FOR APPOINTEE'S UNSUCCESSFUL CAMPAIGN FOR MAYORALTY OF NYC IN NINETEEN SIXTYFOUR, AND HAS BEEN HOUSE GUEST OF APPOINTEE ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS. HE CHARACTERIZED APPOINTEE AS WARM, SINCERE HUMAN BEING WHO "TURNS HIMSELF ON"

b6
b7C

161-6442-22

NOT RECORDED
JUL 18 1969

END PAGE ONE

56 AUG 6 1969

cc destroyed
9-15-69

b6
b7C

PAGE TWO

FOR HIS TELEVISION APPEARANCES, AND THEREFORE, DOES NOT SUCCEED IN PRESENTING A TRUE IMAGE OF HIMSELF WHEN APPEARING BEFORE THE PUBLIC. APPOINTEE IS AN EXCELLENT FATHER AND HUSBAND AND ENJOYS A VERY HAPPY MARRIAGE.

[redacted] SAID HE CONSIDERED APPOINTEE SOMETHING OF A FINANCIAL WIZARD INASMUCH AS HE SUCCEEDED IN PUBLISHING NATIONAL REVIEW FOR MANY YEARS IN SPITE OF THE FACT MAGAZINE OPERATED ON FINANCIAL LOSS, HOWEVER, APPOINTEE HAD SUCCEEDED IN INCREASING THE NUMBER OF SUBSCRIBERS TO THE MAGAZINE AND OFFSET LOSSES BY SOLICITING CONTRIBUTIONS FROM FRIENDS AND SUBSCRIBERS. [redacted] SAID THAT HE HAS ENORMOUS REGARD FOR APPOINTEE'S TALENTS AND PERSONALLY ADMIRES HIM IN EVERY RESPECT. HE SAID HE KNEW NOTHING WHICH WOULD REFLECT UNFAVORABLY UPON APPOINTEE'S CHARACTER, REPUTATION OR ASSOCIATES AND CONSIDERED HIM TO BE COMPLETELY LOYAL TO THE UNITED STATES. [redacted] STRONGLY RECOMMENDED APPOINTEE FOR A POSITION OF TRUST WITH THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

END PAGE TWO

b6
b7C

PAGE THREE

ON SIX SIX LAST, [redacted] [redacted] KING FEATURES SYNDICATE, TWO THREE FIVE EAST FORTY FIFTH STREET, NYC, ADVISED HE HAD KNOWN APPOINTEE SINCE SOMETIME IN NINETEEN SIXTYTHREE AND HAD BEEN [redacted] APPOINTEE'S CAMPAIGN IN THE NINTEEN SIXTY FOUR MAYORALTY CONTEST IN NYC. HE DESCRIBED APPOINTEE AS A MOST SUCCESSFUL COLUMNIST AND A VERY ENERGETIC, DILIGENT WORKER. HE SAID APPOINTEE WAS BRILLIANT CONVERSATIONALIST AND EXTREMELY ENTERTAINING INDIVIDUAL. HE ADVISED THAT HE KNEW OF NOTHING WHICH WOULD REFLECT UNFAVORABLY UPON THE APPOINTEE'S CHARACTER, REPUTATION OR ASSOCIATES OR LOYALTY TO THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT. APPOINTEE ENJOYS A VERY HAPPY FAMILY LIFE AND HIS FAMILY MEMBERS WITH WHOM [redacted] IS ACQUAINTED ARE OF THE HIGHEST REPUTATION.

END PAGE THREE

IN CONCLUSION, [redacted] RECOMMENDED APPOINTEE WITHOUT RESERVATION FOR A POSITION OF TRUST WITH THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT. b6 b7C

ON SIX SIX LAST, CYRUS R. VANCE, SENIOR PARTNER, LAW FIRM OF SIMPSON, DODGE AND BARTLETT, ONE TWENTY BROADWAY, NYC, ADVISED SA [redacted] THAT ALTHOUGH HE AND THE APPOINTEE HAD BEEN PONENTS IN A RECENT ELECTION FOR A POSITION ON THE YALE UNIVERSITY BOARD OF TRUSTEES, HE WAS NOT A T ALL PERSONALLY ACQUAINTED WITH APPOINTEE. HE STATED HE KNEW OF APPOINTEE BY REPUTATION ONLY AND THEREFORE, COULD MAKE NO FURTHER COMMENT CONCERNING HIM. HE EXPLAINED THE ELCTION FOR THE POSITION OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES HAD NOT REQUIRED ANY CAMPAIGNING, THEREFORE, HE HAD NO REASON TO HAVE CONTACT WITH APPOINTEE. b6 b7C

ON SIX SIX LAST, WHITNEY YOUNG, DIRECTOR, NATIONAL URBAN LEAGUE, FIFTY FIVE EAST FIFTY SECOND STREET, NYC, ADVISED HE HAD KNOWN APPOINTEE ON PROFESSIONAL BASIS FOR APPROXIMATELY

THREE YEARS. HE SAID HE ADMIRED AND RESPECTED APPOINTEE, BUT THAT THEY DIFFERED IN THEIR PHILOSOPHICAL APPROACHES IN SOME AREAS. HE SAID HE WAS NOT ACQUAINTED WITH ANY OF APPOINTEE'S FAMILY MEMBERS. YOUNG ADVISED HE HAD RECENTLY INVITED FIFTEEN OF THE TOP JOURNALISTS IN THE UNITED STATES TO TOUR THE GHETTO AREAS OF SIX OF THE COUNTRY'S LARGEST CITITES. THESE JOURNALISTS, DURING THE TOUR, LIVED WITH BLACK FAMILIES AND VIEWED THE ENTIRE SPECTURM OF GHETTO EXISTENCE. APPOINTEE WAS ONE OF THE JOURNALISTS ON THE TOUR AND APPEARED TO TAKE A DEEP INTEREST IN PROBLEMS HE VIEWED. YOUNG ADVISED HE HAD NO REASON TO QUESTION APPOINTEE'S LOYALTY TO THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT AND RECOMMENDED HIM FOR A POSITION OF TRUST WITH THAT GOVERNMENT.

ON SIX SIX LAST, [redacted] b6 b7C

[redacted] NYC,

ADVISED HE HAD BEEN A CLASSMATE OF APPOINTEE AT YALE UNIVERSITY AND EXCEPT FOR A PERIOD FROM APPROXIMATELY [redacted]

END PAGE FIVE

[redacted] WAS IN WDC, HE AND APPOINTEE b6 b7C
HAD BEEN CLOSE ASSOCIATES. ACCORDING TO [redacted] THE APPOINTEE'S WRITINGS WERE OF A VERY CONSERVATIVE NATURE. HE EXPLAINED THE TERM CONSERVATIVE BY SAYING THE APPOINTEE DID NOT ADVOCATE RADICAL CHANGES IN SOCIETY OR A SOCIALISTIC
APPROACH TO SOLVING THE PROBLEMS OF THE WORLD. HE SAID THERE WAS NOTHING IN THE APPOINTEE'S WRITINGS WHICH IN HIS OPINION
CONTROVERTED THE BEST INTERESTS OF THE UNITED STATES. HE SAID APPOINTEE WAS A VERY CHARMING, REMARKABLE INDIVIDUAL WITH A TERRIFIC SENSE OF HUMOR. APPOINTEE IS ENERGETIC, HARD WORKING AND LEADS AN OUTSTANDING MORAL RELIGIOUS LIFE.
APPOINTEE IS VERY PATRIOTIC PERSON WITH A SERIOUS LOVE FOR THE UNITED STATES. HE DESCRIBED APPOINTEE'S WIFE, PATRICIA
BUCKLEY, AS AN EXCELLENT WOMAN WHO WAS A PERFECT COMPLIMENT
BOTH IN INTELLIGENCE AND IN HUMOR TO APPOINTEE. HE SAID HE WAS WELL ACQUAINTED WITH A NUMBER OF APPOINTEE'S FAMILY MEMBERS AND STATED THAT THESE FAMILY MEMBERS, WHEN IN NYC, RESIDED IN END PAGE SIX

A SUITE AT APARTMENTS LOCATED AT [redacted] b6 b7C

[redacted] ADDRESS AND VARIOUS OTHER MEMBERS OF THE FAMILY OCCASSIONALLY RESIDED THERE. HE SAID THE MAJORITY OF THE FAMILY MEMBERS STILL RESIDED IN THE VICINITY OF SHARON, CONNECTICUT, AND COMMUTED TO NYC. IN CONCLUSION, [redacted] STATED HE KNEW OF NOTHING WHICH WOULD REFLECT UNFAVORABLY UPON THE APPOINTEE'S CHARACTER, REPUTATION, ASSOCIATES OR LOYALTY TO THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT AND RECOMMENDED APPOINTEE COMPLETELY FOR A POSITION OF TRUST.

NY EXPEDITING REMAINING INVESTIGATION AND WILL SUBMIT RESULTS BY TELETYPE WHEN AVAILABLE.

END PAGE SEVEN

b6
b7C

[redacted] PROFESSOR, NY UNIVERSITY, WASHINGTON SQUARE, NY, ADVISED SA [redacted] THIS DATE HE IS [redacted] AMERICAN ASIAN EDUCATIONAL EXCHANGE, SEVENTY NINE MADISON AVENUE, NYC. HE STATED BUCKLEY IS A MEMBER IN GOOD STANDING AND NEVER HELD EXECUTIVE POSITION ABOVE EXCHANGE. HE STATED AMERICAN AFRO-ASIAN EDUCATION EXCHANGE SPLIT SEVERAL YEARS AGO INTO HIS GROUP AND AMERICAN AFRICAN EDUCATIONAL EXCHANGE [redacted]

[redacted] KNOWS APPOINTEE PRIMARILY BY REPUTATION AND MET HIM ONCE. HE KNOWS NOTHING DEROGATORY AND HAS NO RESERVATIONS RE RECOMMENDING.

-P-

END

WA...REM FBI WASH DC

FBI WASH DC

FBI BOSTON

1123 AM URGENT 6-9-69 MCG

TO DIRECTOR

FROM BOSTON 161-2269 RUC 2 PGS

Mr. Tolson
Mr. [illegible]
Mr. [illegible]
Mr. [illegible]
Mr. [illegible]
Mr. [illegible]
Mr. [illegible]
Mr. [illegible]
Mr. [illegible]
Mr. [illegible]
Mr. [illegible]
Mr. [illegible]
Tele. Room
Miss [illegible]
Miss Gandy

MR. CLEVELAND
ROOM 1248

b6
b7C

WILLIAM FRANK BUCKLEY, JR. SPECIAL INQUIRY. BUDED JUNE NINE INSTANT, WITHOUT FAIL.

[redacted]

RE NEW YORK TELETYPE DATED JUNE FOUR LAST; HOUSTON TELETYPE JUNE FIVE LAST.

ON JUNE SIX, LAST, [redacted] LAW FIRM [redacted] NATIONAL REVIEW MAGAZINE, NEW YORK, ADVISED HE HAS KNOWN APPOINTEE SINCE NINETEEN FIFTYFIVE. STATED HE HAS FREQUENT CONTACT WITH APPOINTEE AND [redacted] DESCRIBED APPOINTEE AS CAPABLE INDIVIDUAL AND MOST SUITED FOR POSITION FOR WHICH HE WAS APPOINTED. HE RELATED APPOINTEE IS A VERY KNOWLEDGEABLE PERSON OF GOOD CHARACTER, REPUTATION AND MORALS AND A LOYAL AMERICA. HE STATED HE WOULD RECOMMEND.

b6
b7C

END PAGE ONE

161-6442-23

NOT RECORDED

JUL 18 1969

cc destroyed
7-15-69

56 AUG 6 1969

b6
b7C

BS 161-2269

PAGE TWO

ON JUNE SEVEN LAST, [redacted] NATIONAL REVIEW MAGAZINE, ADVISED AT THE BLANTYRE INN, LENOX, MASSACHUSETTS, HE HAS KNOWN APPOINTEE SINCE NINETEEN FIFTYTWO THROUGH ASSOCIATION WITH [redacted] HE STATED HE CONSIDERED APPOINTEE TO BE AN EXCEPTIONALLY ARTICULATE PERSON WITH AN OUTSTANDING DEGREE OF INTELLIGENCE. HE STATED APPOINTEE HAS A STRONG SENSE OF MORAL DUTY TO COUNTRY AND IS OF EXCELLENT CHARACTER AND REPUTATION. HE STATED HE WOULD HIGHLY RECOMMEND. [redacted] ADVISED ON JUNE SIX LAST THAT [redacted]

ON JUNE SIX LAST, CHIEF [redacted] ADVISED THEIR FILES CONTAIN NO RECORD FOR [redacted]

ON JUNE SIX LAST, [redacted] ADVISED HE COULD LOCATE NO RECORD FOR [redacted]

END

GMJ↑

FBI WASH DC

@

VIA TELETYPE
JUN 9 1969
ENCIPHERED

Mr. Tolson
Mr. DeLoach
Mr. Mohr
Mr. Bishop
Mr. Casper
Mr. Callahan
Mr. Conrad
Mr. Felt
Mr. Gale
Mr. Rosen
Mr. Sullivan
Mr. Tavel
Mr. Trotter
Tele. Room
Miss Holmes
Miss Gandy

MR. CLEVELAND
ROOM 1246

WA2 3:37 PM PDC

URGENT 6-9-69 PDC

TO DIRECTOR PLAINTEXT

FROM BALTIMORE (161-NEW) (RUC)

WILLIAM FRANK BUCKLEY, JR., SPI, BUDED: JUNE NINE INSTANT. [redacted]

RE NEW YORK TEL JUNE FIVE LAST.

ON JUNE SIX LAST APPOINTMENT FOR INTERVIEW WITH [redacted] WRITER, [redacted] BALTIMORE, TELEPHONICALLY SCHEDULED FOR FOUR P. M. DURING INITIAL CONTACT, [redacted] ADVISED THAT HE IS IN THE PROCESS OF WRITING A BOOK CONCERNING THE STATE OF THE CONSERVATIVE ATTITUDE IN AMERICA USING THE APPOINTEE AS THE CENTRAL THEME REPRESENTING THE CONSERVATIVE ATTITUDE. HE STATED DURING THIS CONTACT THAT HE HAS KNOWN THE APPOINTEE FOR APPROXIMATELY THIRTEEN YEARS THROUGH THEIR MUTUAL PROFESSION AS WRITERS AND CONSIDERS HIM TO BE OF THE FINEST CHARACTER AND REPUTATION. HE HAS NEVER HAD ANY CAUSE TO QUESTION THE APPOINTEE'S LOYALTY TO THE U. S. AND THERE IS NO INFORMATION CONTAINED IN HIS PROPOSED BOOK WHICH WOULD REFLECT ADVERSELY UPON THE CHARACTER, REPUTATION, LOYALTY OR MORAL CONDUCT OF THE APPOINTEE.

b6
b7C

b6
b7C

161-6442-24

END OF PAGE ONE

NOT RECORDED
5 JUL 18 1969

cc destroyed 7-15-69

56 AUG 6 1969

b6
b7C

BA 161-NEW

PAGE TWO

PRIOR TO THE SCHEDULED INTERVIEW, [redacted] TELEPHONICALLY CANCELED THE INTERVIEW AND AN ATTEMPT TO RESCHEDULE THE INTERVIEW MET WITH NEGATIVE RESULTS. DURING THE ATTEMPTED RESCHEDULING, [redacted] ADVISED THAT SHE HAD BEEN INSTRUCTED TO INFORM THAT [redacted] HAD STATED THAT HE COULD ONLY FAVORABLY ENDORSE THE APPOINTEE FOR A POSITION INVOLVING TRUST AND CONFIDENCE WITH THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AND THAT THEY WERE BOTH PERSONALLY AWARE OF THE APPOINTEE'S RECENT APPOINTMENT AS A MEMBER OF THE U. S. ADVISORY COMMISSION ON INFORMATION. SHE WAS ALSO INSTRUCTED TO ADVISE THAT BOTH [redacted] CONSIDER THE APPOINTEE TO BE A VERY WONDERFUL INDIVIDUAL AND THAT THROUGH [redacted] NUMEROUS INTERVIEWS AND RESEARCH CONCERNING THE APPOINTEE IN PREPARATION FOR HIS PROPOSED BOOK, HE HAD NOT DEVELOPED ANY INFORMATION WHICH WOULD BE CONSIDERED UNFAVORABLE TO THE APPOINTEE AND ON THE BASIS OF THEIR PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE OF THE APPOINTEE, THEY WOULD RECOMMEND HIM FOR ANY POSITION UNDER CONSIDERATION. SHE ALSO ADVISED THAT [redacted] DID NOT FEEL THAT ANY PERSONAL INTERVIEW CONCERNING THE APPOINTEE WAS NECESSARY.

END OF PAGE TWO

BA 161-NEW

PAGE THREE

b6
b7C

IN VIEW OF THE ABOVE, NO ADDITIONAL ATTEMPTS BEING MADE TO INTERVIEW [redacted] AND NO REPORT BEING SUBMITTED.

END

WA.....ZA

JDR

FBI WASH DC

FD-36 (Rev. 5-22-64)

FBI

Date: 6/10/69

b6
b7C

Transmit the following in _____
(Type in plaintext or code)

Via AIRTEL _____
(Priority)

TO: DIRECTOR, FBI

FROM: SAC, WFO (161-5900) (P)

WILLIAM FRANK BUCKLEY, JR.
SPI

Rerep of SA [redacted] dated 6/9/69 at Washington, D. C.

Enclosed for the Bureau are 2 copies of IRS report regarding appointee.

[redacted] Washington, D. C., informed SA [redacted] on 6/9/69 as follows:

He has been a friend and associate of WILLIAM FRANK BUCKLEY, JR., since about 1958. [redacted] the National Review, of which BUCKLEY is Editor-in-chief.

He said BUCKLEY is a man of excellent character, and enjoys an excellent reputation. BUCKLEY's associates are people who have the best interests of the United States in mind and in their actions. BUCKLEY is a loyal American and is an outstanding patriot. He has never been connected with or had association with any subversive or unpatriotic group.

1 - Bureau (Enc-2)
1 - WFO

161-6442-25
NOT RECORDED
5 JUL 18 1969

LWS:pje
(2)

Approved: _____ Sent _____ M Per _____
Special Agent in Charge

56 AUG 6 1969

As concerns BUCKLEY's professional competence, he said, "He is an extraordinary man, a superb writer and outstanding debater." BUCKLEY's weekly television show was awarded an "Emmy" on 6/8/69 for it's professional quality.

He would recommend him without reservation for a position of trust and responsibility either in or out of government service.

The files of the Passport Office, Department of State reviewed on 6/9/69 by SE [redacted] disclose that on 1/21/26, WILLIAM FRANK BUCKLEY, JR., was included on his mother's, ALOISE STEINER BUCKLEY, passport 92858 which had been issued 6/29/25. His birth date was listed as 11/24/25 at New York, New York, and the file contained the notation that his birth certificate had been seen by passport authorities. b6 b7C

On 6/28/29, he was included on his mother's passport 94360 for a proposed 1 year trip to France, England, Spain, Rumania, Switzerland, Germany and Italy, for travel.

The file contained the notation that he was included on the passport of his sister, JANE BUCKLEY, passport 581496 issued 9-9-38. This passport application is not in file and cannot be located.

On 5/19/39 at London, England, WILLIAM FRANK BUCKLEY, JR., was issued passport 225733 for continued residence abroad and for return to the U. S. This passport also included [redacted] and MAUREEN L. BUCKLEY. b6 b7C

On 6/16/48, he was issued passport 232339 for a proposed 3 month trip to France, Spain, Switzerland, England, Holland, Belgium, Portugal and Ireland for a visit. He listed his father as WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY who was born at Washington, Texas, on 7/11/1881 and his mother as ALOISE STEINER BUCKLEY, who was born at New Orleans, La., on 3/7/1895. He listed his permanent residence at 100 Main Street, Sharon, Connecticut.

On 7/12/54 he was issued passport 435988 for a proposed 2 month pleasure trip to England, France, Switzerland, Italy and Spain. He stated that he was married on 7/6/50 to PATRICIA TAYLOR who was born at Vancouver, B.C., Canada, on 7/1/26.

On 12/10/58, at New York, New York, he was issued passport 1273243 for a proposed 1 month business and pleasure trip to Switzerland and England.

On 1/17/63 at New York, New York, he was issued passport D-261441 for a proposed business and pleasure trip to "most European countries." Proposed length of stay abroad, not set forth. He listed his permanent residence at Wallacks Point, Stanford, Conn., and a mailing address at 150 East 35th Street, New York City, New York. On 1/6/65 at New York City, New York this passport was renewed for a proposed 2 month work and pleasure trip to France, Switzerland and England.

On 12/29/67 at New York City, New York, he was issued passport H-1234567 for a proposed 2 month pleasure trip to "all countries outside the Iron Curtain."

The file contained no additional pertinent information.

WFO 161-5900
RTT:jmg
1

New York Senators

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] b6 b7C

On June 9, 1969, [redacted] advised he has known the appointee primarily as a result of the appointee's reputation in the news media. He has appeared as a panelist recently on the appointee's television program. He does not consider himself to be a close friend of the appointee. [redacted] is infrequent contact with the appointee and information available to him convinces him the appointee is a loyal American citizen of good morals, reputation and associates. He recommends him to a position of trust and responsibility in the U. S. Government. b6 b7C

4

VIA TELETYPE
JUN 1 1 1969
ENCIPHERED

Mr. Tolson
Mr. DeLoach
Mr. Mohr
Mr. Bishop
Mr. Casper
Mr. Callahan
Mr. Conrad
Mr. Felt
Mr. Gale
Mr. Rosen
Mr. Sullivan
Mr. Tavel
Mr. Trotter
Tele. Room
Miss Holmes
Miss Gandy

MR. CLEVELAND
ROOM 1249

WA...4. .FBI NEW YORK

1:52 AM DEFERRED 6-11-69 JAS

TO DIRECTOR ...PLAINTEXT...

FROM NEW YORK 161-3080 12P

WILLIAM FRANK BUCKLEY, JR., SPI. BUDED JUNE NINE, SIXTY NINE, WITHOUT FAIL.

b6
b7C

RE NEW YORK TELETYPE TO BUREAU, DATED JUNE NINE, SIXTY NINE, AND BUREAU TELECON TO NEW YORK, DATED JUNE TEN, SIXTY NINE.

161-6442-26

ON JUNE NINE, SIXTY NINE, [redacted] NOT RECORDED 5 JUL 18 1969 [redacted] NATIONAL REVIEW MAGAZINE, ONE FIVE ZERO EAST THIRTY FIFTH STREET, NEWYORK CITY, SAID HE HAD KNOWN APPOINTEE SINCE NINETEEN FIFTY SIX, WHEN HE ENTERED EMPLOYMENT OF NATIONAL REVIEW OF WHICH APPOINTEE IS AND WAS THEN EDITOR. [redacted] DESCRIBED APPOINTEE AS EXTREMELY RESOURCEFUL, ENERGETIC, INTELLIGENT INDIVIDUAL WHOSE CHARACTER, REPUTATION, ASSOCIATES AND LOYALTY TO THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT WAS ABOVE REPROACH. APPOINTEE AND WIFE, PATRICIA, ARE HAPPILY MARRIED AND ARE GRACIOUS ENTERTAINING COUPLE. HE CHARACTERIZED APPOINTEE AS

END PAGE ONE

56 AUG 6 1969

cc destroyed 7-15-69

b6
b7C

RECOGNIZED LEADER OF RESPONSIBLE CONSERVATIVE POLITICAL MOVEMENT IN UNITED STATES, AND THAT APPOINTEE'S BOOKS AND ARTICLES REFLECTED APPOINTEE'S RATIONAL, POSITIVE APPROACH TO THE POLITICAL PROCESS. HE SAID APPOINTEE WAS TOTALLY ANTI-COMMUNIST. HE RECOMMENDED APPOINTEE WITHOUT RESERVATION FOR POSITION OF TRUST AND CONFIDENCE WITH UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

ON JUNE TEN, SIXTY NINE, [redacted] NATIONAL REVIEW MAGAZINE, ONE FIVE ZERO EAST THIRTY FIFTH STREET, NEW YORK CITY, ADVISED HE HAD KNOWN APPOINTEE SINCE EARLY FIFTY SIX, AND HAD BECOME AN INTIMATE ASSOCIATE OF APPOINTEE'S UPON JOINING APPOINTEE'S STAFF AT NATIONAL REVIEW IN [redacted] HE SAID THE APPOINTEE IS REMARKABLE MAN WHOSE INNER SELF IS AT COMPLETE CALM BASED UPON A STRONG RELIGIOUS FAITH. THE APPOINTEE HAS ONE OF THE FASTEST MINDS [redacted] EVER WITNESSED AND A FANTASTIC VOCABULARY. HE SAID APPOINTEE EXTREMELY CONSIDERATE OF

THE FEELINGS OF OTHERS AND TOOK PAINS TO AVOID POSSIBLE EMBARRASSMENT TO INDIVIDUALS. APPOINTEE WAS NOT ONE TO LOSE HIS TEMPER, ALTHOUGH AT TIMES CERTAINLY THE DEMANDS AND PRESSURES OF HIS PARTICULAR ENVIRONMENT DICTATED THAT HE MUST. HE COULD NOT RECALL THE APPOINTEE EVER, "LOOSING HIS COOL", WITH THE EXCEPTION OF HIS TELEVISED EXCHANGE WITH GORE VIDAL.

b6
b7C

[redacted] DESCRIBED APPOINTEE AS INDIVIDUAL OF RESPONSIBLE CONSERVATIVE BELIEF WHO BASED HIS POLITICAL JUDGEMENTS CONSISTENTLY ON RATIONAL OBJECTIVE CONSIDERATION. ALL OF THE APPOINTEE'S FAMILY MEMBERS OF HIS ACQUAINTANCE WERE OF EXCELLENT CHARACTER, REPUTATION, ASSOCIATES AND LOYALTY TO THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT AS IS THE APPOINTEE. HE SAID APPOINTEE IS A MEMBER OF THE AMERICAN ASIAN EDUCATIONAL EXCHANGE, AN ORGANIZATION HE DESCRIBED AS DEDICATED TO EDUCATING AMERICANS CONCERNING ASIA AND DISCREETLY ANTI-COMMUNIST. [redacted] RECOMMENDED APPOINTEE COMPLETELY FOR A POSITION OF TRUST AND CONFIDENCE

END PAGE THREE

b6
b7C

WITH UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

ON JUNE TEN, SIXTY NINE, [redacted] NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK, ADVISED THAT HE HAS KNOWN APPOINTEE BOTH SOCIALLY AND PROFESSIONALLY SINCE APPROXIMATELY FIFTY FOUR, HE STATED THAT APPOINTEE FOUNDED AND PRESENTLY SERVES AS EDITOR FOR THE NATIONAL REVIEW MAGAZINE. [redacted] DESCRIBED APPOINTEE AS BEING A VERY COMPETENT, INTELLIGENT, RESPONSIBLE AND ARTICULATE INDIVIDUAL WHO AT TIMES CAN BE ARGUMENTATIVE, BUT HAS THE ABILITY TO WORK WELL WITH OTHERS REGARDLESS OF THEIR POLITICAL BACKGROUND. HE KNEW OF NOTHING OF AN UNFAVORABLE NATURE CONCERNING APPOINTEE AND DESCRIBED HIM AS BEING AN HONEST INDIVIDUAL AND LOYAL AMERICAN CITIZEN WHOSE MORAL CHARACTER AND ASSOCIATES ARE ABOVE REPROACH. [redacted] ENDORSED APPOINTEE FOR A POSITION OF TRUST AND RESPONSIBILITY WITH THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.

END PAGE FOUR

b6
b7C

ATTEMPTS WERE MADE TO CONATCT [redacted] PLANET OIL AND MINERAL CORPORATION, NEW YORK CITY, ONE JUNE TEN, SIXTY NINE, HOWEVER, HE WAS NOT AVAILABLE FOR INTERVIEW AS HE WAS OUT OF THE COUNTRY.

ON JUNE TEN, SIXTY NINE, [redacted] "FIRING LINE", TELEVISION PROGRAM, WITH OFFICES IN ROOM SIX FOUR ZERO, ONE FIVE ZERO EAST THIRTY FIFTY STREET, NEW YORK CITY, ADVISED THAT HE HAD BEEN [redacted] APPOINTEE'S TELEVISION PROGRAM, "FIRING LINE", SINCE APPROXIMATELY [redacted] AND HAD WORKED CLOSELY WITH APPOINTEE IN THAT CAPACITY SINCE THAT TIME. HE SAID, "FIRING LINE" SHOW HAD BEEN IN EXISTENCE SINCE APRIL, SIX, SIXTY SIX, AND TO DATE ONE FIVE THREE SHOWS HAD BEEN PRODUCED. HE DESCRIBED APPOINTEE AS VERY MORAL, RELIGIOUS, GRACIOUS PERSON WHO WAS BERY CONCERNED ABOUT THE WELL BEING OF HIS GUESTS AND THOSE WITH WHOM HE WORKED. APPOINTEE IS VERY INTELLIGENT, ARTICULATE INDIVIDUAL, AND EXCELLENT DEBATER, BUT NOT ONE GIVEN TO BEING

END PAGE FIVE

POMPOUS EIGHER ON OR OFF CAMERA. THE APPOINTEE IS NOT ONE TO LOSE HIS TEMPER, EVEN UNDER GREAT PRESSURE, AND SHOWS GREAT CONSIDERATION FOR OTHERS. APPOINTEE IS A RATIONAL, REASONALBE INDIVIDUAL WHO IS WITHOUT ANY RACE OR RELIGIOUS BIAS. HE SAID APPOINTEE IS DEFINITELY ANTI-COMMUNIST AND TOTALLY LOYAL TO THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES. HE SAID APPOINTEE DIVIDES HIS TIME BETWEEN HIS TOWN HOUSE IN NEW YORK CITY AND HIS RESIDENCE IN WALACK'S POINT, STAMFORD, CONNECTICUT. HE SAID HE HAD NO REASON TO QUESTION APPOINTEE'S LOYALTY TO GOVERNMENT OF UNITED SATES, AND RECOMMENDED HIM COMPLETELY FOR POSITION OF TRUST AND CONFIDENCE WITH UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

b6
b7C

ON JUNE TEN, SIXTY NINE, [redacted] "FIREING LINE", TELEVISION SHOW, NEW YORK CITY, ADVISED HE HAD NBEEN ACQUAINTED WITH APPOINTEE SINCE SIXTY SIX, IN PROFESSIONAL CAPACITY IN CONNECTION WITH [redacted] THE APPOINTEE'S TELEVISION SHOW. HE ADVISED THE APPOINTEE

b6
b7C

WAS AN EXTREMELY GRACIOUS INDIVIDUAL OF THE HIGHEST CHARACTER, REPUTATION, ASSOCIATES AND LOYALTY TO THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT AND RECOMMENDED THE APPOINTEE MOST HIGHLY FOR A POSITION OF TRUST AND CONFIDENCE WITH THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT.

ON JUNE NINE, SIXTY NINE, SPECIAL AGENT [redacted] REVIEWED THE RECORDS OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT, SDNY, FOLEY SQUARE, NEW YORK, UNDER DOCKET NUMBER SIX NINE CIVIL ONE NINE THREE THREE CONCERNING APPOINTEE. THIS DOCKET REFLECTED THAT ON MAY SIX, SIXTY NINE, APPOINTEE FILED COMPLAINT AND A SUMMONS WAS ISSUED. APPOINTEE ALLEGED AN ACTION FOR DEFAMATORY ALLEGATIONS REQUESTING DAMAGES IN THE AMOUNT OF FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS AND NAMING GORE VIDAL AS DEFENDANT. ON MAY SIX, SIXTY NINE, APPOINTEE FILED AFFIDAVIT PURSUANT TO FEDERAL RULES AND CIVIL PROCEDURES. ON MAY THIRTEEN, SIXTY NINE, APPOINTEE FILED REQUEST FOR ORDER THAT THE PLAINTIFF BE GRANTED LEAVE TO TAKE DEPOSITION FROM DEFENDANT. ON MAY FIFTEEN, SIXTY NINE, APPOINTEE FILED

b6
b7C

PLAINTIFF NOTICE OF TAKING DEPOSITION OF DEFENDANT. THE LAW FIRM OF BARE, NELSON, WILLIAMS, AND MITCHELL, TWO ZERO EXCHANGE PLACE, REPRESENTS APPOINTEE IN THIS PENDING MATTER.

ON JUNE NINE, SIXTY NINE, REVIEW OF THE RECORDS OF THE CIVIL COURT OF NEW YORK STATE, ONE ONE ONE CENTRE STREET, NEW YORK CITY, REFLECTED FOLLOWING INFORMATION UNDER INDEX NUMBER ONE SIX EIGHT SEVEN THREE NINE. [redacted] [redacted] VERSUS WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY, JR., PATRICIA T. BUCKLEY AND NATIONAL REVIEW INCORPORATED. THE COMPLAINT ALLEGED THREE CAUSES OF ACTION. THE BASIS BEING THE RENTAL BY THE DEFENDANTS, THE APPOINEE, OF A CERTAIN APARTMENT LOCATED AT ONE FOUR ONE EAST SIXTY NINETH STREET, NEW YORK CITY. THE FILE FURTHER REFLECTED AN AGREEMENT DATED DECEMBER FOUR, SIXTY SEVEN, BETWEEN THE ATTORNEYS REPRESENTING PLAINTIFF AND THE APPOINTEE WITH PLAINTIFF'S ACTIONG, AND APPOINTEE'S COUNTERCLAIM DISCONTINUED WITHOUT COST AFFORDED TO EITHER PARTY.

Credit

END PAGE EIGHT

b6
b7C

ON JUNE NINE, SIXTY NINE, A REVIEW OF THE COUNTY COURT OF NEW YORK COUNTY FOR THE STATE OF NEW YORK, SIX ZERO CENTRE STREET, NEW YORK, REFLECTED UNDER INDEX NUMBER ONE ONE SEVEN SEVEN SIX THREE, A SUIT BY [redacted] AS EXECUTRIX OF THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF FOWLER V. HARPER VERSUS WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY, JR., [redacted] AND NATIONAL REVIEW INCORPORATED, DEFENDANTS. UNDER INDEX NUMBER THREE TWO FIVE NINE DASH SIX THREE, A SUIT WAS LOCATED WITH LINUS C. PAULING, PLAINTIFF, VERSUS WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY, JR., [redacted] AND NATIONAL REVIEW INCORPORATED, DEFENDANTS. THE SUIT BROUGHT BY BOTH PLAINTIFF IN THESE CASES ALLEGED LIBEL RESULTING FROM EDITORIALS IN MAGAZINE, NATIONAL REVIEW. THE FILES FURTHER REFLECTED THAT AN ORDER OF DISCONTINUANCY, DATED SEPTEMBER TWO, SIXTY SIX, WAS RENDERED IN THE CASE OF [redacted] VERSUS NATIONAL REVIEW INCORPORATED. IN BOTH SUITS, AN OFFICIAL JUDGEMENT WAS RENDERED ON JANAUARY FIVE, SIXTY SIX, WITH THE

b6
b7C

AMOUNT OF REVOVERY GRANTED TO THE PLAINTIFF [redacted] INE THE AMOUNT OF THREE HUNDRED THIRTY SIX DOLLARS AND THIRTY EIGHT CENTS-COST, AND TO THE PLAINTIFF PAULING ONE HUNDRED FORTY ONE DOLLARS AND NINETY CENTS COSTS, BOTH SUITS ARE CLOSED.

ON JUNE NINE, SIXTY NINE, [redacted] APARTMENT BUILDING LOCATED AT [redacted] NEW YORK CITY, SAID [redacted] HAS OWNED AND AT TIMES OCCUPIED APARTMENT [redacted] OF THAT APARTMENT BUILDING SINCE [redacted] HE STATED [redacted] DIVIDES HER TIME BETWEEN APARTMENT AND HOMES OF RELATIVES IN CONNECTICUT. HE STATED [redacted] INTENDED TO RESIDE AT APARTMENT FULL TIME ONCE [redacted] HE STATED [redacted] OF EXCELLENT REPUTATION.

ON JUNE TEN, SIXTY NINE, RECORDS OF THE NEW YORK CITY CREDIT BUREAU AND NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT PROVED TO BE NEGATIVE CONCERNING [redacted]

END PAGE TEN

b6
b7C

[redacted] ON THE BASIS OF THE INFORMATION SUBMITTED.

ON JUNE NINE, SIXTY NINE, [redacted] PERSONNEL RECORDS, HENRY HOLT AND COMPANY, THREE EIGHT THREE, MADISON AVENUE, NEW YORK CITY, STATED SHE COULD LOCATE NO RECORD OF ANY FORMER EMPLOYEE BY THE NAME OF WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY, JUNIOR, SHE STATED RECORDS DID CONTAIN NAME OF A [redacted]

not about with Holt Co.

ON JUNE TEN, SIXTY NINE, [redacted] NEW YORK CITY, SAID HE COULD MAKE NO STATEMENT CONCERNING [redacted]

END PAGE ELEVEN

BUREAU SHOULD NOTE THAT NUMEROUS ATTEMPTS HAVE BEEN MADE TO LOCATE FORMER CLASSMATES AND ASSOCIATES OF APPOINTEE AT YALE UNIVERSITY, AS FURNISHED BY NEW HAVEN OFFICE. HOWEVER, SUCCESS IN THESE ATTEMPTS HAS BEEN LIMITED TO THOSE INTERVIEWS OF THOSE INDIVIDUALS AS REPORTED, AS MUCH OF NEW HAVEN'S INFORMATION APPEARS DATED AND INACURRATE.

NEW YORK MAKING NO FURTHER ATTEMPT TO LOCATE INDIVIDUALS UACB.

RUC.

END

RM FBI WASH DC

FD-36 (Rev. 5-22-64)

FBI

Date: 6/11/69

Transmit the following in _____
(Type in plaintext or code)

Via AIRTEL _____
(Priority)

TO: DIRECTOR, FBI

FROM: SAC, NEW YORK (161-3080) (RUC)

SUBJECT: WILLIAM FRANK BUCKLEY, JR.
SPECIAL INQUIRY
BUDED 6/9/69, WITHOUT FAIL

b6
b7C

Re Bureau telecon to NY, 6/11/69.

On 6/11/69, [redacted] Secretary, Catawaba Corporation, 103 E. 37th St., NY, NY, advised that the appointee presently holds a position of Director on the Board of Catawaba Corporation. He described the corporation as being a representative of foreign oil concerns in the US. He said the corporation was founded by the appointee's father, WILLIAM BUCKLEY, Sr., approximately twenty years ago.

Above information furnished Bureau re telecon.

2 - Bureau
1 - New York

GTM:pb
(4)

cc destroyed
7-18-69
pjk

161-6442-27
NOT RECORDED
22 JUN 12 1969

RECEIVED

Spec. Inq.

Approved: _____ Sent _____ M Per _____
Agent in Charge

FD-36 (Rev. 5-22-64)

F B I

Date: 6/11/69

Transmit the following in _____
(Type in plaintext or code)

Via AIRTEL _____
(Priority)

TO: DIRECTOR, FBI

FROM: SAC, WFO (161-5900) (P)

WILLIAM FRANK BUCKLEY, JR.
SPI

b6
b7C

Re Report of SA [redacted] dated 6/9/69 at Washington, D.C.

IC [redacted] on June 10, 1969, caused a search to be made of the files of the U. S. Secret Service, Department of the Treasury, and was advised that no record was located concerning the appointee.

Pending IRS, OSI ~~and Senator JAVITS, New York~~.

161-6442-28

NOT RECORDED
5 JUL 18 1969

(1) - Bureau
1 - WFO

LWS:jmr
(2)

RECEIVED F B I

Approved: _____ Sent _____ M Per _____
Special Agent in Charge

56 AUG 6 1969

WFO 161-5900
RTT:raf
1

Senator JACOB K. JAVITS (New York), furnished the following information to SA [redacted], on June 10, 1969. b6 b7C

He has known the appointee for approximately 10 years as a result of the appointee's professional reputation as a political commentator and writer. He has appeared as a guest on the appointee's television program and has been present with him at numerous political and social functions in the State of New York. He said his and the appointee's political ideologies are "poles apart" and stressed these differences in opinion do not indicate to Senator JAVITS that the appointee's political views are disloyal to the United States in any respect. He said he knows of no unfavorable information concerning the appointee's patriotism or loyalty to the U. S., nor to his character, reputation, manliness or associates. He said political considerations existing in Senator JAVITS'S constituency prevent him from furnishing any additional comment concerning the appointee.

FD-36 (Rev. 5-22-64)

F B I

Date: 6/11/69

Transmit the following in _____
(Type in plaintext or code)

Via AIRTEL _____
(Priority)

TO: DIRECTOR, FBI

FROM: SAC, NEW HAVEN (161-1068)(RUC)

SUBJECT: WILLIAM FRANK BUCKLEY, JR.
SPECIAL INQUIRY

ReBureau telephone call to NHO 6/10/69, and NHO telephone call to Bureau 6/11/69.

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] [redacted] at New Haven, Conn., on 6/10/69:

[redacted] secretary, Office of Dean of the College, Yale, advised that appointee's record lists that he attended the University of Mexico during 1943-1944.

b6
b7C

1 Bureau
1 New Haven
DRG:md
(2)

161-6442-29

NOT RECORDED
25 JUN 13 1969

Spec Inq.

Approved: _____ Sent _____ M Per _____
Special Agent in Charge

56 AUG 8 1969

FD-36 (Rev. 5-22-64)

FBI

Date: 6/11/69

Transmit the following in _____
(Type in plaintext or code)

Via AIRTEL _____
(Priority)

TO: DIRECTOR, FBI
(ATTENTION: SUPERVISOR [redacted]

FROM: SAC, MIAMI (161-653) (RUC)

SUBJECT: WILLIAM FRANK BUCKLEY, JR.
SPECIAL INQUIRY
BUDED 6/9/69

b6
b7C

Re Birmingham telephone call of SA [redacted] to Miami, 6/11/69.

Mr. WILLIAM BRADFORD HUIE of Hartzell, Ala., furnished the following information to SA [redacted] at the Eden Rock Hotel, Miami Beach, this date:

Mr. HUIE stated that the exact name of the publication which he was associated with in a capacity of editor and assistant editor was the "American Mercury." He noted that this publication was a magazine and was founded in the '20's. Mr. HUIE further advised, although he has known WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY, JR., for a number of years, that BUCKLEY was only associated with the magazine approximately 2 to 3 months. He could not recall BUCKLEY's position or what his title was; however, if it were necessary, that he would be able to obtain this information on his return to Hartzell, Ala., on 6/12/69. Mr. HUIE was advised that, if it were necessary to determine the exact position of Mr. BUCKLEY, he would be contacted at his home after 6/12/69.

161-6442-30
NOT RECORDED
22 JUN 13 1969

2 - Bureau
1 - Miami
FJM:kab
(3)

cc destroyed
7-12-69

Approved: _____ Sent _____ M Per _____
Special Agent in Charge

6/11/69

AIRTEL AIRMAIL

TO: SAC, MIAMI

FROM: SAC, BIRMINGHAM (161-199)RUC)

RE: WILLIAM FRANK BUCKLEY, JR.
SPI

BUDED: 6/9/69

REBUCAL TO Birmingham and Birmingham telcal to Miami, 6/11/69.

On 6/11/69, Bureau requested that WILLIAM BRADFORD HUIE, Hartselle, Ala., former owner and editor, American Mercury newspaper, New York, N. Y., now defunct, be interviewed to determine exact position appointee held with that publication, it being noted that he was reportedly employed as an assistant editor or associate editor of the American Mercury newspaper. Bureau further requested that the identity of the publication by which appointee was employed be determined. The Bureau pointed out that the American Mercury newspaper reportedly had changed its name to the New American Mercury" in 1952. Bureau further requested that it be determined whether the New American Mercury was a newspaper, magazine or some other publication.

On 6/11/69, inquiry at Hartselle, Ala., determined HUIE presently on vacation and could be located at Eden Rock Hotel, Miami, Fla.

Miami, at Miami, Fla., locate and interview HUIE and determine from him the exact name of the publication, appointee's exact position and the type of publication, whether newspaper, magazine or some other publication.

161-6442-31

2 - Miami
1 - Bureau
1 - Birmingham
RJY:rvm
(4)

NOT RECORDED
25 JUN 13 1969

56 AUG 6 1969

Speeding

OPTIONAL FORM NO. 10
MAY 1962 EDITION
GSA GEN. REG. NO. 27

5010-106

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

Tolson
DeLoach
Mohr
Bishop
Casper
Callahan
Conrad
Felt
Gale
Rosen
Sullivan
Tavel
Trotter
Tele. Room
Holmes
Gandy

TO : Mr. Gale

DATE: June 12, 1969

1 - Mr. DeLoach
1 - Mr. Sullivan
1 - Mrs. Brown
1 - Mr. Gale
1 - Mr. Cleveland
1 - Mr. Fisher
1 - Mr. Bishop

FROM : W. V. Cleveland

SUBJECT: WILLIAM FRANK BUCKLEY, JR.
SPECIAL INQUIRY - WHITE HOUSE

My memorandum dated June 2, 1969, (attached) advised that at the request of the White House an investigation was being conducted concerning Mr. Buckley, aged 43. On May 28, 1969, President Richard M. Nixon announced his intention to nominate Mr. Buckley as a member of the United States Advisory Commission on Information.

Mr. Buckley is editor of "National Review" (a weekly magazine), has a syndicated newspaper column "On the Right," and has television program "Firing Line." In addition he is the author of a number of books.

Persons interviewed during the investigation furnished favorable comments concerning Mr. Buckley and stated he is regarded as a conservative. [redacted] The Catawba Corporation is apparently controlled by the Buckley family and Mr. Buckley is on the Board of Directors.

b3

Mr. Buckley has been previously sued for libel and currently he is suing Mr. Gore Vidal for alleged libelous statements made by Mr. Vidal during a television debate with Mr. Buckley.

STATUS:

Investigation complete except for records check at three governmental agencies and interview of Jacob K. Javits, United States Senator from New York, who has not been available for interview.

REC 76 161-6442-32

ACTION:

ENCLOSURE

EX-115

5 JUL 18 1969

Attached for approval is a letter to Mr. Ehrlichman transmitting the results of the investigation to the White House.

56 AUG 6 1969

BRF:blm
(7)

Speed Ltr

6-13-69